Raring to Read

Earlier this week, Katrina from Southway Library visited Oakwood Primary to award pupils who had completed the Summer Reading Challenge with their certificates. It was great to see so many pupils receiving their awards and Katrina was hugely impressed by how respectful and polite the pupils were during the assembly. Alexander from Southway Library also spoke to the children on Monday. He is looking to run a new game activity each Friday at Southway Library starting Friday 24th October. Alexander will be running the session from 2.00pm to 3.30 pm and it will run every other Friday. Southway Library are really hoping that this takes off in a big way so that they can then expand the activity to once a week and potentially until after 3.30pm. Please head down to Southway Library from the 24th of October if you are interested.

Southway Library Ambassador

We are also incredibly proud to announce that Hugo has been given the honour of being the very first Southway Library Ambassador. Katrina, Alexander and the library staff have been letting us know, how over the summer time, Hugo has visited the library almost daily, encouraging his friends to come with him, enjoy what the library has to offer, and generally being a real credit to his family, Oakwood Primary and his community. We are all very proud of you Hugo, what a star you are!

Have a great weekend everyone, see you on Monday.
Mr Arnold and the Oakwood Team.
