18th February 2022

World Book Day and Book Week

We have got a reading extravaganza planned for World Book Day – Thursday 3rd March and Book Week – Tuesday 1st March to Friday 4th March.

Favourite Book Character Mufti

On Thursday 3rd March children will be able to come to school dressed as their favourite book character with their favourite book to share. Please see the attached poster for costume ideas with clothes that you already have at home. (You don't have to go and buy a costume, there are lots of ideas you can try with everyday clothes and items you have at home!) The children will be engaging in many exciting reading activities and book related events. All the children will receive a World Book Day Token.

Sponsored Readathon As part of this week, we are fundraising to increase and improve our current book stock. This includes holding a Sponsored Readathon during school hours. Children will be given the opportunity to read as much as possible during the week. Please see a previous e-mail with further information from Miss Crocker and Miss Ward.

Please come and join us!

We are especially excited that we can offer the opportunity for parents/carers to come into school to share a book with their child. This will take place at the end of the day in the hall from 2.45pm-3.05pm. These sessions will start in Book Week and in the following weeks so that each year group will have the opportunity to hold a special parent/carer book sharing session. We will send further details about the organisation for each session after half term.

Celebration Shout Out!

Please feel free to email the school with any pupil achievements or special efforts you'd like celebrated! We would love to share them with everyone through our newsletter.

Many congratulations to Charlotte (Mersey Class) who was successful in gaining 1 of 15 places to perform in the nativity Christmas show at Shaftesbury Avenue Theatre in the London West End, with Razzmatazz theatre school. What an amazing achievement and, no doubt, a fantastic experience!

Veg Power Schools Programme

The Veg Power Schools Programme starts again after Half Term. Veg Power have created a handy guide for parents. You will see the adverts, which started on TV during the Masked Singer on Saturday, and many will be keen to take part. This guide helps you to prepare to make the best of the support available and also reminds eligible parents about the Healthy Start Voucher Scheme for free fruit and veg. The guide can be found by typing/copying this link into your browser search:
